Church project to launch involvement

A unique program in which the entire congregation will participate this Sunday at Narisepki United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Nameoki Road, will be based on Verse 13 from the Chapter 10 — "Before he left, he called his 10 servants and gave them each a gold coin and told them 'See what you can turn with this while I am gone.'"

According to the pastor, the Rev. Don Pierson, members of the congregation will be asked to take a dollar bill from the offering plate at Sunday's worship service and "put the money to work in whatever way they think is a good investment."

The Christian endeavor and financial project will culminate on World Wide Communion Sunday in October when members will return the "dollar's dollar," together with any interest it has earned during the intervening months," the pastor explained.

The Rev. Pierson said Sunday's project will be used to launch the Nameoki church's personal interest and involvement program in a concrete manner.

GC gardener grows 500 varieties of hemerocallis; wins 12 awards

Mrs. Gloria L. Vinton, 3248 Wayne Ave., whose garden contains more than 500 varieties of hemerocallis, a hybrid day lily, won eight first place awards and four other prizes at a weekend show at the Missouri Botanical Gardens, St. Louis.

The exhibition, arranged in the Floral Display House at the noted garden facility, was sponsored by the Greater St. Louis Hemerocallis Society.

"Garden Beauties" was the theme of the 12th annual show which was accredited by the American Hemerocallis Society.

Mrs. Vinton, an avid gardener who is involved in cultivating her own species of hemerocallis, has been a member of the society since 1964. She also produces about 500 varieties of iris in her garden to which she welcomes visitors.

The hemerocallis blooms profusely throughout the summer, lasting from May until September or later, with a single plant producing a number of blossoms.

The flowers vary in color from deep purple to gold and from salmon pink to rust red. Many are flecked with contrasting colors.

The Granite City resident said the hemerocallis, which grows from a cone (similar to a bulb), is extremely hardy, thrives easily in the hot summer sun and is valuable for decorative planting in hard-to-landscape areas.

First place awards won by Mrs. Vinton were attained for her varieties of Melon Balls and Gary Bee, with both species also receiving purple ribbons denoting "best of color" in class, and Crystal Sunshine, Convention Queen, Wild Key, Lila, Black Horse and Blushing Belle.

Sahara Song and Purple Tide varieties won second place awards and her Windsor Castle and tetraploid seedling entries earned third place awards.

12 TIRES STOLEN

Twelve tires worth about $300 were stolen during a weekend burglary at Don's Shell, Route 111 and East Chain of Rocks Road. The front door was pried open and the door glass broken, officials were told.

Braves nine divides games with Pirates

The Granite City Braves suffered their first loss in the Belleville Area Traveling baseball league this week at East St. Louis to the Pirates 4-0. Braves hurler Darris Davis pitched his third league play shutout fanning five and allowing no walks. The Braves on eight hits in the second game scored two runs in the first inning and one run in each of the third and fifth innings. Second game action saw Tom Manogian tag a single, scoring Braves Jeff Scarborough and Jim Jackson. With the bases loaded in the third, Manogian was hit by a pitched ball, sending Rich Schmidt home. Gary Meyer hit a single in the fifth for the Braves to score Ed Schmidt. The Braves held a 4-3 lead in the first game until the Pirates scored the tying and winning runs in the seventh. Larry Ljerla relieved Larry Schleicher in the sixth inning. The Braves stole six bases in the first game, Ed Schmidt stealing two and Jim Jackson, Manogian, Fancher and Schleicher one each. The Braves scored their first two runs in the second as Fancher singled in Schleicher and Manogian. Jackson singled in the fifth, scoring Schmidt and Schleicher. In league play, the Braves are now 6-1, overall, they are 8-5. The Braves are scheduled to host Lansdowne at Wilson Park at 2 p.m. Sunday.

'Silver dollar night' Friday at race track

Friday night will be "Silver Dollar Night" at Tri-City Speedway as silver dollars will be given as change at the admission ticket booth. Children attending the race will be given free checkered flags. At the race, late model stock car driver, Wil Spalding of Ponton Beach will try to gain points over St. Louisian Russ Wallace to open his track season point lead. Wallace upset Spalding last weekend when Spalding's car was damaged in an accident and the local driver had to borrow another racing car to keep in the program. In addition to late model stock car racing on the half-mile dirt oval, sportsmen's cars will compete on the tight quarter-mile track. Feature late model stock races have been trimmed from 25 laps to 20 laps, in an effort to conserve fuel during the nation's fuel shortage, it has been announced by the promoter, Ed Bloom.

Mercer will host Troy nine Thursday

The Mercer nine of the Inter-City Baseball league will host Troy at 2 p.m. Thursday on Diamond One in Wilson Park. In other Fourth of July holiday Inter-City action, Piasa Indians will play the Blue Seals at Livingston, and Panama will travel to play Van's on the diamond in Van Preter Park, East Alton. "Troy is probably the best team in the league and has an 8-1 record," Wendell Corey, Mercer manager, comments. "They have some real power in Jerry Pitcher and Don Sonnenberg, and Pitcher Hawkins is an effective hurler. "Troy beat us badly (16-1) earlier in the season, but Thursday we will have Bruce Thompson on the mound for us. Bruce just returned from minor league competition. "When we beat Piasa 11-1 last weekend, he only allowed four hits, so we should be able to hold our own," Corey concluded. Mercer will play in exhibition game at Herrin Saturday and will be idle on Sunday.

Post 113 defeats Collinsville

Tri-City American Legion Post 113 defeated visiting Collinsville 4-3 in a league baseball game Monday afternoon at Wilson Park. Mike Stanton went the distance on the mound for the Granite City squad and struck out six batters. He also gave up a hit but was left stranded on base. Post 113 broke the ice in the second inning as Brett Champion walked and Larry Petr later made a sacrifice bunt which advanced Champion to third. When the throw went to third, Collinsville had no one on the bag and the ball sailed past, allowing Champion to score. In the fifth inning, Collinsville scored two runs, but Tri-City quickly added three runs to regain the lead. Daryl Page walked and the Collinsville pitcher balked, moving Page to second. Mike Martinez singled for a run. On the unsuccessful attempt to nab Page at home, Martinez advanced to second. Paul Mushill tripled, driving Martinez home, and William Carr singled, bringing Mushill across the plate. Collinsville added a run in the sixth but was unable to tie the score. The visitors had five hits while Post 113 had four. Each team committed one error.

James Lee fastest cyclist

James Lee of Texas continued his "swiftest rider" domination of the American Motorcycle Association short-track cycle race at Tri-City Speedway last night, making a clean sweep of the event. In the process, he set a new track record of 15.81 in time trials on the quarter-mile dirt oval. Three riders made a bid for glory in every event—heat races, semifinals and the final race—but Lee edged the others two by jumping into the lead at the start of the main race and won it going away by the pack. Lee, 19, started by shattering the old track record of 15.80 set last year by his brother, Robert, who did not compete last night. The defending track champion was reported to be on his honeymoon. Young Lee then won his heat race and semi before dashing to victory in the feature. Challenging the youthful Texan were Belleville's Doug Ann and Oklahoma's Phil McDonald. Both had captured their heat and semi races. McDonald and Ann finished second and third behind Lee in the main event. Other race victors were: St. Louisian Neil Keen, second heat race; Preston Windon of Canton, Ill., fifth heat; and Missouri's Randy Blackwell, the consolation event. James Lee, who became the first rider this season to win more than one feature event, will attempt to make it three in a row next Tuesday at the local speedway when motorcycle racing resumes at 7 p.m. for time trials and 8 p.m. for the first heat race.

Local underwater record attacked

A group of divers in Los Angeles today will attempt to break the world record for underwater monopoly playing, set some time ago at the YMCA here. The record set here of 13 hours and three minutes, is in jeopardy, as the Los Angeles group, armed with 60 air tanks for the game was to plunge into the pool of the Marriott Motor Inn there today.

Busy week for Legion teams; Post 113 loses

The Fairview Heights Legion demolished Post 113 in Illinois District 22 American Legion baseball 9-3 at Wilson Park Tuesday evening. Fairview exploded in the fourth inning with eight runs on four hits, four walks and two GC errors. Jeff Boots belted a bases-loaded triple, and the other three Fairview hits were singles. Greg Terrell suffered the loss. He was relieved in the fourth inning by Bill Dickerson, who was relieved in the fifth by John Scott. Granite City scored in the second inning when Brett Champion doubled and scored on an infield error. The third inning saw Terrell and Mike Martinez single and score later on a hit by William Carr. Granite City is now 5-7 and Fairview Heights is 8-2. Post 113 will host Alton Friday at 6 p.m. on diamond one in Wilson Park and then will take to the road for a 1 p.m. Saturday game at the Belleville Citizens Park. Belleville and Fairview Heights are tied for second place in the league. It's back to diamond one in Wilson Park for Post 113 with a 2 p.m. Sunday game against O'Fallon. Venice-Madison Post 307 hosts Fairview Heights today at 6 p.m. in Lee Park, Venice. V-M then travels to Collinsville for 10 a.m. action Thursday, July 4 followed Sunday by a 3 p.m. game in Highland.

Urge veto power for Congress on nuclear cooperation pacts

Congressman Melvin Price (Dem., 22nd Ill.) is sponsoring a bill in the House of Representatives to enable Congress to approve or disapprove President Nixon's proposed nuclear cooperation agreements with Egypt and Israel.

The bill has been favorably reported by the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, of which Rep. Price is chairman. The Joint Committee report said the bill would "assure a deliberate and searching Congressional review of proposed agreements which involve nuclear fuel or nuclear reactors with any significant power output and thus some practical potential for plutonium generation."

The measure would affect proposed agreements for cooperation in dealing with nuclear reactors capable of producing more than five megawatts of heat.

Such agreements are presently subject to review by the Joint Committee, but there is no provision for Congressional approval or disapproval.

The bill would make it obligatory for the Joint Committee to submit a report to Congress of its views and recommendations regarding each proposed agreement, together with a proposed concurrent resolution stating in favor or does not favor the proposed agreement for cooperation.

If Congress votes to adopt a resolution of disfavor, it would legally bar execution of a proposed agreement.

Rep. Price expects action on the bill within a few days.

Rep. Price has reassured Congress that the proposed nuclear agreements with Egypt and Israel will receive a careful review upon submission to his Joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

"An important element of this review procedure in the past has been the conduct of thorough hearings in which specific details of the proposed arrangements are thoroughly explored by the Committee," the local congressman said.

He cited 40 other nuclear cooperation agreements which have been the subject of Joint Committee hearings in the past.

Benefit coupon sale

Money for the Granite City Officer Friendly Athletic Fund, which supports police-sponsored teams and youth activities, is being raised this week by groups selling McDonald's Restaurant coupons.

The coupons, which sell for $1 and may be redeemed Saturday or Sunday for $1 worth of food or drinks, are being sold by the "SIUE series to trace 'ragtime'."

"This is Ragtime," a series of 25 half-hour programs tracing the evolution of ragtime through recordings, interviews and discussions of ragtime performers and composers, will begin Saturday at 5 p.m. over WISL-FM. Owned and operated by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the station is located at 88.7 on the FM dial.

Early programs in the series study the roots of ragtime, its growth as black musicians began to develop a way of synthesizing melodies of popular songs and the influence of Scott Joplin, who brought ragtime out of the "honky-tonks" and into the concert halls.

Later programs will discuss classical ragtime, the East Coast School, the St. Louis School, and the commercialism of "Tin Pan Alley." Finally, contemporary ragtime music will be explored, highlighting the compositions of "New Rag" performers and current styles.

Host for "This is Ragtime" is Terry Waldo, whose knowledge of ragtime is coupled with virtuosity on several instruments.

McDonald's has several of the buses and uses them to take senior citizens, scouts and other groups on trips as part of the restaurant's public relations campaign.

Auxiliary hears Girl's Staters

Misses Marianne Morrison and Beverly Edwards, delegates to the 1974 Illinois Girl's State convention at Jacksonville, were special guests last week at a meeting of the Tri-City American Legion Auxiliary Unit 113 which sponsored their trip.

The girls, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Hinson, Legion Auxiliary state membership chairman, reviewed their experiences while attending the week-long activity.

They described a tour of the court house and capitol buildings in Springfield, where the Girl's State representatives were addressed by Illinois Gov. Dan Walker.

At the Girl's State convention delegates elect and govern themselves along lines of the Illinois State Constitution as a mythical "state" or independent community.

Miss Morrison related her experiences in winning a campaign to be elected chief of police, and Miss Edwards described her election to the Girl's State House of Representatives and as a precinct committeewoman and convener of delegates.

Miss Hinson served on the staff at the Illinois Girl's State meeting.

Mrs. Lumeta Durbin, Girl's State chairman for Unit 113, was hostess at a luncheon served to the special guests, Miss Hinson; the mothers of the honorees, Mrs. Victor Morrison and Mrs. Stanley Edwards; and auxiliary members following the meeting.

Red, white and blue decorations were used throughout the hall. The tables were centered with arrangements of red roses, white snow balls and blue snadragons, together with American flags. Miniature flag-lapel pins were given as favors. During the business meeting, Mrs. Alma Klaus reported on a party hosted by auxiliary members for 40 patients at Alton State Hospital.

It also was announced that Mrs. Bonnie Jacob, Unit 113 president, was elected second vice-president of the Madison-Bond County American Legion Auxiliary.

Strong justification for Governor Walker to approve an exposition and performing arts building for this state's No. 2 center of population

Illinois governors often have used a veto pen to strike down needed projects in this region. While this again is a distinct possibility in the case of the Exposition and Performing Arts Authority created by the Illinois General Assembly during the final weekend of June, many people feel it would be the wisdom for Governor Daniel Walker to approve at least the portion of the bill permitting a major exposition hall to be built in Madison and St. Clair Counties, most likely the SIUE campus.

The legislation contemplates centers costing up to $15 million each here and in Rockford, $10 million each in Peoria and Aurora and $5 million in Springfield.

Previously, the state participated in the rebuilding of burned McCormick Place in Chicago, the city that is the state's No. 1 population center. As No. 2 in size, the Madison-St. Clair Counties area contends that it deserves consideration next, followed by the other communities in descending order of their concentrations of population.

Revenue bonds are to be retired from the proceeds of operation of the proposed local cultural and performing arts center, backed up by the state's Agricultural Premium Fund and Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority Reconstruction Fund, similar to the McCormick procedure. No taxation or new forms of revenue are involved. Speculation over gubernatorial opposition centers on the prospect of the state incurring some of the costs. Gov. Walker has taken pains to maintain the image of a cost-cutter who, above all, will not forsake the welfare of taxpayers.

But as a former business executive, the governor knows that it is necessary to spend money in order to make money. The vitality that an SIUE exposition and convention hall would inject into the economy of this region could stimulate greater prosperity, leading to increased job opportunities, commercial expansion and more overall revenue to help the state meet its growing obligations.

We have read a number of veto documents over the years, each citing supposedly clear justification for negativity, but often injecting illogic and distortions in order to reach their conclusion.

Former Gov. Kerner, in particular, hurt this community badly after listening to the advice of a few people who had little concern for the well-being of the Quad Cities. The state's chief executive has been hailed far and wide as a new era, a turning away from the narrow political thinking of the past. His response to the Exposition and Performing Arts proposal will be an indication of how much basic change has occurred.

Illinois campaign disclosure legislation an important 'foot in door'

One of the few states without a campaign disclosure law, Illinois is moving to remedy that deficiency. Legislation approved 52-0 by the Senate Sunday night and 158-4 by the House Monday requires revelation of election contributions and expenditures of $150 or more.

The compromise plan sent to the governor has effective dates of Oct. 1 for state candidates and Jan. 1 for local office-seekers.

In addition to applying to candidates, the legislation affects political and campaign committees collecting or expending more than $1,000 during a 12-month period.

Independence Day a time to renew old-fashioned American patriotism

To the Editor:
The Declaration of Independence was signed July 4, 1776; tomorrow is the 198th anniversary.
Speaking of the flag of the United States, as President Woodrow Wilson said many years ago: "This flag, which we honor and under which we serve is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation."
It is more often portrayed by use of the flag than in any other way.
Pride in a free nation is embodied in the flag—pride in the valor of our forefathers, the struggle of a democratic government.

Search for truth—a vital service

To the Editor:
One day a news reporter visited the class and told us what his job is like.
We learned that a reporter is doing a real service to his community by reporting the truth about happenings in the city.
A lot of good can come about because a reporter has done research and informed the public about a problem. Often he stirs citizens to action to correct a situation.
A newspaper in California once was dedicated to report only the "good news." The reporter told us that paper soon went out of business.
We also took a walk to Graham's Book Store. We learned that they do have control over what they sell and send many books back that publishers send them.
During the two weeks, we published two newspapers on the Vacation Church School. We distributed 250 copies to children and parents.
We would like to thank you for putting our article in the paper. And we thank you for reporting the happenings of Granite City to us.

Donnewald aids Southwestern Illinois

To the Editor:
A good friend and 55th District legislative colleague, Senator James H. Donnewald, is being unfairly criticized by a tiny minority of his constituents for supposedly spending too much time in Springfield and too little time dealing to legislative business back home in the district.
As a close friend and a great admirer of Jim, I feel compelled to respond to this regrettable criticism—even though he is immensely popular in his district, is virtually a saint of winning reelection handily this November, and is perfectly capable of defending himself.
I am especially fond of Jim Donnewald the man and Jim Donnewald the legislator. He is almost like a son to me. So it is natural that I would want to set the record straight on his behalf.
First of all, we must realize that Senator Donnewald, as assistant Senate minority leader and one of the top four individuals in the entire state, is in a position of leadership which demands much of his time and energies.
His leadership duties and responsibilities require him to be involved in all major decisions affecting the whole state of Illinois—that are made in the Senate.
And being in leadership, Jim obviously has to spend more time in the capital city than the average legislator does. He helps oversee the Senate personnel and assists in the operation of the Senate, not to mention his statewide leadership chores.
I think citizens of the 55th District are fortunate to have a leader in the Senate. How many other districts can make such a boast?
We not only should be proud of our native son who has been elevated to top state leadership in Springfield, but we ought to realize that he now is in a position to really help his constituents. Why? Because he is right in the middle of the decision-making process, and that includes decisions that can help Southwestern Illinois.
For example, he worked long and hard to help convince state highway officials to build superhighway 409 through our area, the four-laning of Route 51 from Centralia to Route 409, the upgrading of 127, the four-laning of Route 50 to St. Clair County and other highway projects.
And he played an important role in discussing and leading to the decision to build a large new Monterey coal mine near Albers.
These and many other programs and projects directly beneficial to this part of the state have been ably watched over by Jim Donnewald.
If he were a blow-hard politician, he would be tooting his own horn about what all he has done. But he doesn't operate that way.
He is low key, prefers working behind the scenes, and is too modest to brag of his accomplishments. So I'll just put in a good word for him myself.
Finally, I want to say that he is a man of sterling character, integrity and virtue—things you don't always find a lot of in politics.
He has spotless reputation around the Statehouse, and reputations like that aren't easy to obtain.
A legislative leader is literally chained to Springfield during the first six months of each year, when budgetmaking and numerous other legislative chores are disposed of.
But you will see—as always—that throughout the summer, fall and early winter, Sen. Donnewald will be back home meeting with constituents at the grassroots level.
Let's recognize Sen. Donnewald for what he is: A hard working legislator who quietly but effectively gets the job done for his constituents and for all the people of Illinois.

Lawyers dominate politics

SPRINGFIELD — Lawyers. Why do they dominate politics?
Make no mistake about it, the legal profession is far-and-away ahead of any other profession or trade when it comes to being represented in government.
The federal government, as Watergate has brought to the attention of the nation, has been dominated by lawyers from Richard Nixon, Spiro Agnew and John Mitchell to the 38 lawyers on the House Judiciary Committee.
All three branches of government at the state level have a preponderance of attorneys. The judiciary, of course, are all lawyers. The attorneys in the executive branch are Dan Walker, Neil Hartigan, Bill Scott, Alan Dixon and George Lindbergh. The only elected office as provided in the 1970 constitution which is not now held by a lawyer is secretary of state — Mike Howlett.
The General Assembly does not exclude their influence either. For example, there's one pharmacist, one chiropractor, one bowling lanes operator — and 79 attorneys.
Of the 177 members elected to the House of Representatives last term, 57 were attorneys. In the Senate, the percentage is even higher, 22 of 58.
Why so many? It's not the money. Most could earn more in private practice.
Their training and experience make them better qualified than most, for one thing. Who can better write the law than a lawyer, is their argument.
The time element is a key factor, also. In how many professions can the person take the time off or a leave-of-absence in order to campaign? In the case of legislators, they can practice law parttime while lawmaking parttime.
In addition, many of them

Sludge debated

SPRINGFIELD — Ignore unpleasant gossip and maybe it'll go away; ignore sludge and it tends to pile up at the edge of town.
The inevitable production of sewage sludge is a matter of growing concern in more and more communities which are running out of practical ways or places to dispose of it.
The problem is being compounded by a widespread "ignore it and maybe it'll go away" attitude on the part of the Illinois public.
Perfectly aware the problem isn't going to just solve itself, the state EPA currently has a program going aimed at the use of sludge as an agricultural fertilizer.
If you'll pardon the expression — bringing sludge out into the open. Literally.
Viewing use of sludge as an agricultural fertilizer, the EPA sees such use as both inevitable and logical. Unfortunately, it's also highly emotional.
For instance, a Lewistown farmer, William Johnson, has asked necessary EPA approval for a plan to ship 1,200 tons of air-dried sludge weekly from the Cook County treatment plant and use it to fertilize 3,000 acres in Franklin County. On the surface it seems to everyone's benefit — Johnson will be paid by the Chicago Metropolitan Sanitary District for removing the sludge which is giving them problems; the railroads will let him haul it at a reduced rate in order to use cars which otherwise would be returning empty; and Cook County will be delivering coal from Southern Illinois, and Johnson's 3,000 acres would be getting it.
The immediate reaction in and around Benton near the area involved was summarized in a placard carried by a teen-ager at a recent public meeting on the issue. The sign read, "God didn't create Southern Illinois to be a cesspool."
James Frank, agriculture adviser to EPA Director Robert Briceand, said the EPA is concerned about the application because it doesn't provide enough information.

Board race

Mrs. Hawkins said this incident "caused me to decide right then and there that I would run against him."

Mrs. Hawkins said she sent her resignation as precinct committeewoman to the county clerk's office Monday. She said that while she was not required legally to resign the post, she did not feel she should run as an independent and at the same time be affiliated with a political party.

She also polled Walter T. "Buck" Simmons, chairman of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee, of her resignation and recommended that the county committee appoint Dean Harrell as committeewoman of Precinct Five. Mrs. Hawkins defeated Harrell for the committee post in the March 19 election.

Responding to Mrs. Hawkins' announcement, Whitwell said he requested that she either resign or take a leave of absence from her post as town inspector. "Not health officer. I'm the health officer. I want the job of my position as supervisor," Whitwell said.

"I've never done anything to the woman in my life. I am helped her get appointed town inspector," he continued.

"I asked her why she planned to run against me and I asked her if it was because I didn't do a good job. She said, 'No, you're running a good job. I want the job. I'd just kind of like to have the income,'" Whitwell alleged.

The supervisor commented, "She's done an excellent job as town inspector. I said to her, 'How do you expect us to work together if you're running against me?' I said I thought she would be at least like she would resign or at least take a leave of absence. I don't think she would want to run against me."

She wants to use the position of town inspector politically against me. "I was so shocked to hear that she would against me. We've worked together so long. She's been so helpful on this Dowsy Slough deal. Helen has done a lot of the legwork."

"I never dreamed she would pick up and run against me. I went door to door for her when she ran for precinct committeewoman. Now she's quitting that post."

"The real truth is Albert Bell (township highway commissioner), Mike Ropes (former head of the Truth in Religion party and a political opponent of Whitwell) and Raymond and Shirley Gaudette (Pontoon Beach trustee and his wife, a former township employee) are prompting her (Mrs. Hawkins) to run against me. They had a meeting, I hear, and talked about it. I understand she (Mrs. Hawkins) was planning to run against Horace Calvo (D-Granite City) as an independent for state representative and they talked her into running against me," the supervisor concluded.

Living costs key campaign issue—Dixon

"The cost of living must be the theme of the 1974 election and Democratic candidates with a solid reputation for achievement deserve to be elected over the disciples of Nixon rule-or-ruin philosophy," State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon told gatherings of Democrats early this week in Collinsville and Edwardsville.

Dixon said a recent study shows that for every $100 the average family spent on living costs in January 1969, when President Nixon took office, it now costs $134 to live as well today.

"A dollar that was worth 100 cents when Pres. Nixon took office," Dixon said, "is now worth only 74 cents."

"During this 1969 to 1974 period," Dixon added, "food has soared 47.3 per cent, housing is up 32.9 per cent and clothing has increased by 23.7 per cent.

"And to make matters worse, prices continue to climb. A recent survey in Illinois, for example shows this is what has happened in the past 12 months:

—Margarine is up 67.9 per cent.

—Eggs are up 67 per cent.

—Potatoes are up 47.4 per cent.

—Tomatoes are up 46 per cent.

—Noodles are up 44.4 per cent.

—Bread is up 40.7 per cent.

—Milk is up 33.6 per cent.

—Cornflakes are up 32.1 per cent.

cent. —Bologna is up 17 per cent.

Dixon said that while food costs soar, hog and beef producers are "taking a real beating at the farm gate, with many on the verge of bankruptcy."

"Buying a home—which we did like to believe is part of the 'American dream'—is turning into a 'nightmare' because of the runaway inflation of the present administration," Dixon declared.

"Persons who have saved and waited for what they believed would be a financially sound down payment on a new home, find the interest rates out of sight.

"As state treasurer, I study interest rates daily. I shudder at what I find. The prime interest has reached 11 1/2 per cent.

"Interest on 30-day certificates of deposit is presently paid at the rate of 10 1/2 per cent.

Other rates are:

60 days—11 per cent.

90 days—11 1/2 per cent.

120 days—11 1/2 per cent.

150 days—11 1/2 per cent.

180 days—10 per cent.

270 days—9 1/2 per cent.

360 days—8 1/2 per cent.

"What is happening is that the Nixon administration has failed to cut inflation which is picking the pockets of the average wage earner today," Dixon said.

"I believe the people of Illinois must tell the nation in November that their pocket-books cannot afford the fiscal policies of Richard Nixon."

Dixon spoke at the opening of the Collinsville Democratic Headquarters, at 1407 Vandavia in Collinsville. An hour later, he appeared at the Edwardsville Township Democratic Club picnic at Madison County Park No. 2.

Expanded federal boat safety rules

Illinois boaters who do their boating in watercraft over 16 feet long have been given a year's grace period to comply with new tougher federal safety requirements.

By July 1975, anyone operating a boat 16 feet long or longer will be required to have a wearable flotation device aboard for each person on board, plus one throwable flotation device. Failure to be so equipped will result in arrest and fines.

Ken Gruenewald of the Law Enforcement Division of the State Conservation Department said the state asked for, and obtained, the one-year's waiver because it was initially believed the present legislative session would consider only fiscal matters, and that the state would not have time to amend its present boat safety legislation.

The session ending this week was broadened to include non-revenue as well as revenue proposals.

Legislation will be introduced next January to bring the state into compliance with the federal requirements, while also incorporating any other changes the federal authorities might require.

Except in the area of flotation devices, Illinois has actually been more strict than the requirements of the Coast Guard, Gruenewald said.

Illinois has long been requiring registration of all mechanically propelled watercraft, and requiring lifesaving devices aboard all craft—provisions which are only now being required by federal authorities, under a boating act which makes grants to qualifying states.

Under that act, a total of $7.5 million was divided among all eligible states, with Illinois never having received more than $140,000 in grants until now. However, the overall total is expected to go to $10 million soon, and Illinois conservation leaders hope to see the state's grant increased to the maximum allowable funding.

The initial federal requirement on safety devices would have demanded a wearable device for each passenger, and also would have required that the device be worn at all times.

Illinois conservation officials fought that provision on grounds it would undoubtedly be found unconstitutional, as had a similar attempt to require motorcycleists to wear protective helmets.

Ultimately the language proposed by Illinois was adopted instead, Gruenewald noted.

Present laws already enforceable require one Coast Guard approved flotation device aboard for each person aboard in boats 16 feet and under. These can be cushions if they meet Coast Guard standards.

The only differences in the state and federal law involves boats above 16 feet. Gruenewald said the difference in requirements was adopted because the smaller boats are subject to capsizing, and a boater sitting on a floatable cushion probably will automatically take it with him when he goes over the side.

The bigger craft seldom capsize, but sink more slowly, he said, giving those aboard time to get the wearable devices from a storage area, usually in the bow, and don them before having to abandon the boat.

Since these craft are also less maneuverable, a boater falling overboard might drown before the boat could return to him, hence the requirement for a throwable device to keep him afloat until he can be hauled in. Boaters on navigable waters in the state may be stopped by Coast Guard boarding teams, Gruenewald said, if they do not have the wearable devices on board in the coming months, but they will be given only warning tickets.

But boaters should be aware that they will be required to have wearable flotation devices on boats over 16 feet after July 1, 1975, and they might as well begin to acquire them now, he added.

Shower honors Karen Goetting

Miss Karen Ann Goetting, an August bride-to-be, was complimented this week at a pre-wedding party given at Hope Lutheran Church by Mrs. Ethel Zimmer, Mrs. Kathy Hackworth and Mrs. Anita Brown.

The guest of honor will be married Aug. 16 to Samuel Bautsch at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Goetting, 2826 Edwards St. Her fiancé is a son of Mrs. Pauline Bautsch, 1906 St. Clair Ave.

Many gifts were received by the honoree, who was assisted in opening her presents by Miss Susan Goetting, Miss Donna Bautsch and Miss Elaine Goetting. The threesome will serve as attendants at the wedding.

The bridal party colors of blue and white were used throughout the shower appointments. The buffet table was decorated with a blue and white parasol, wedding bells and streamers.

A miniature bride doll decorated the gift table and tiny wicker baskets lined in blue and white gingham and filled with mints were presented to the guests as favors.

Games were directed by the hostesses and "bell" prizes were awarded to successful contestants.

About 50 attended the party, including many out-of-town relatives and friends.

JUNE BRIDE. Army Private Second Class Carolyn Lapp, the former Carolyn Kamaulski, who was married to Marine Private First Class Michael Lapp at the Fort Gordon (Ga.) Post Chapel. She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ebling of Littlefield, Ky.; formerly of Granite City.

Wed in military chapel

Army Private Second Class Carolyn Kamadulski and Marine Private First Class Michael Lapp exchanged their marriage vows in a military wedding ceremony on June 15 at the Fort Gordon (Ga.) Post Chapel.

Captain Benjamin Bryant, Army chaplain, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ebling of Annette, Pontefract, Ky., formerly of Granite City. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George McKay of Bellevue, Idaho.

The bride was escorted to the 25th anniversary party for Motils.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Motil Jr., 2646 Lincoln Ave., were guests of honor at a party and dance given during the weekend at the Polish Hall in Madison. The occasion observed their 25th wedding anniversary.

Arrangements for the party were made by the honorees' sons, Mike Motil III and Ron Motil.

A buffet supper was served to approximately 200 guests by Mesdames Eric Mooshan, William Steiner, Louis Such, Steve Venorsky and Miss Beverly Francis.

MR. AND MRS. MIKE CZWORNOG, who were united in marriage at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Mattson, Ill. She is the former Miss Joan Grobelny, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Grobelny of Mattson.

Joan Grobelny becomes Mrs. Mike Czwornog

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Joan Grobelny, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Grobelny, 1904 Shelby St., Mattson, Ill., and Mike Czwornog, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Czwornog, 50 Bermuda Lane, taking place June 15 at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Mattson.

The Rev. Virgil Mank of Mattson, officiated at the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of yellow and salmon colored gladioli, mums and pom poms.

Miss Cathy Reclin, Taylorville, presided at the organ, playing "More," "Ave Maria" and "The Wedding Song."

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza. Cluny lace trimmed the French tucked V yoke and formed the neckline and the caplet and cuffs of the lantern sleeves.

Bands of matching lace encircled the hem of the softly gathered skirt and edged the chapel length train.

She wore a mantilla silk illusion veil in madonna style and held a colonial bouquet of roses, yellow daisies, peach carnations, noni poms, baby breath and stephanotis.

Matron of honor Mrs. Jo Lynn Goldstein and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Sharon Grobelny, a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Barbara Bennett and Miss Beverly Fraizer of Granite City, were dressed alike in gowns fashioned of cuprashan in floral shades of peach, yellow, green and salmon.

The brides were made with scoop necklines, cap sleeves and deep ruffled hems. Each attendant wore a white pictorial hat and held a colonial bouquet of flowers similar to the bride's arrangement.

The groom chose John Coady of Taylorville as his best man. Ken Klesh of Granite City, Ken Pitts of Mount Prospect, Tom Grans of Rockford, Bob Grobelny, the bride's brother, and Tom and Greg Czwornog, brothers of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Several thousand copies of the pamphlet have been printed and are being made available free of charge to persons throughout the county at local police departments and several business places. The pamphlet is written in a simple question and answer format and covers several different types of drugs, the effects of the different drugs, treating for persons addicted and how to identify an addict, in addition to current laws on drugs.

Cyclist dies in crash on I-70

James Brooks Jr., 40, of East St. Louis, was fatally injured when he was struck by a southbound motorcycle while out of control on Route 2 at Bend Road, struck the traffic island curbing and threw him onto the concrete at 12:45 a.m. Tuesday. Brooks was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was declared dead upon arrival at 1:20 a.m. Tuesday. Funeral arrangements are pending at an East St. Louis funeral home.

offer of constituting full acceptance of the offer. Whitmer asked that period would be covered by the contracts, what the per unit price of pickups would be and whether there were any changes in rates for individuals dumping at the Milan firm's landfill. Robertson replied that the bidding, as in compliance with the specifications available at the city, was the best he could do. The contract will be for a three-year period.

Baronch told Whitmer that if he were interested he could have obtained a copy of the specifications earlier. In response to a question by Whitmer, Robertson said the contract will come back before the council for approval.

In subsequent voting, however, Coleman's amending motion, which made acceptance of the Milan bid subject to the action of the contract, carried by a vote of 9 to 3, with two council members absent.

When Alderman Clyde Boyd, serving as mayor pro tem in the absence of Mayor Paul Schuler, called for a vote on Robertson's original motion, it received a unanimous favorable vote, with those in favor supporting Coleman's amendment motion also voting for Robertson's motion.

Attorney George Filcoff said the action on the separate motion "didn't mean anything, anyway" because both were voted for acceptance of the Milan bid, on the basis of which the contract agreement later will be presented to the council.

The new agreement for garbage and trash pickups is $83,931, higher than the $264,957 paid by the city for sanitation pickups during the 1973-74 fiscal year, which ended April 30. Of the bids received by the city, the lowest bid was $31,500, by Midwest Sanitary in Wood River, $31,500, and by in Bros., Florissant, Mo., $31,720.

15TH ANNUAL FOURTH OF JULY festivities at Wilson Park feature rides designed for all ages, along with local concession stands, dances, softball games and a dunkin' machine. The rock-clone at the left is one of the newest rides and in the background is the ever popular Ferris wheel. A band concert will be performed from 2 to 4 p.m. Thursday under the trees near the midway area. The rides and stands will be open today and Thursday until 11 p.m.

GC votes wage boosts

A series of salary raises for Granite City employees that will cost the city $118,531 a year and bring the city's annual payroll past the $2-million mark, was approved by the City Council in regular meeting Monday night.

Ordinances fixing the new salaries were approved under a schedule that provides salary increases of 6.5 per cent to appointive officers and across-the-board raises of 4.5 per cent for city hall clerical workers and 6.5 per cent for all other employees.

Raises were approved in separate ordinances for Chief of Police Ronald Velzer and Fire Chief Don Parente, both of whom will receive $17,635 annually, increased from previous salaries of $16,559. All increases were made retroactive to May 1, beginning of the city's current fiscal year.

Increases also were granted to City Attorney George Filcoff whose salary was raised to $13,978 from $13,124; Eric Robertson, assistant city attorney, to $6,709 from $6,300; James Thebeau, board attorney, to $2,120 from $1,869, and Casper Nighoshian, condemnation attorney, $5,325 from $4,990.

The salary of Robert Jackson, superintendent of the sewage treatment plant, was set at $15,406 a year, from a previous salary of $14,629.

Raises for city hall clerical workers and other city employees were contained in an ordinance that also specified a wage of $2.25 per hour for all part-time workers.

The new salary schedule brings the city's annual payroll to $2,021,367. Last year's payroll was $1,902,836.

The council Monday night also placed on file a letter from Nameoki Supervisor and County Board Member Louis Whitsett asking for a copy of an ordinance annexing Nameoki land of the Steelecrest subdivision. No action was taken on the request.

The aldermen also approved a request by M. W. Engineering Co. of St. Louis for a $330 expenditure to buy a bronze plaque for mounting at the new secondary sewage treatment plant. The plaque will bear the names of council members who participated in plans for construction of the new $12 million treatment plant. The engineering firm which has done all the design work and construction engineering on the project suggested the plaque be purchased now because the price will increase if the purchase is delayed until the plant is near completion. A petition signed by 20 residents on the east side of Wabash Avenue between Amos Avenue and Johnson road, notifying the city that they do not want sidewalks built on their side of the street, was submitted to the council. The aldermen voted to place the petition on file, noting that a $10,000 appropriation for sidewalk construction in that area carried no designation as to the location of the walks.

Take low bid on trash collection

A low bid of $348,000 for collection of garbage and trash in Granite City was accepted by the City Council Monday night, but only after a long argument in which some aldermen asked for details of a new contract before taking final action.

Acceptance of the low bid by Milan-East Corp., which has handled Granite City sanitary pickups for five years, was recommended in a motion by Alderman R. E. Robertson, a member of the council's sanitation committee, who said the new contract would come before the council later.

In discussion that followed, Robertson's motion was amended by Alderman Ronald Coleman who moved that the Milan bid be accepted if Monday night's meeting subject to approval of the council.

Arguments that Robertson's motion gave outright approval to the contract as well as acceptance of the $348,000 bid, without council members being aware of what was in the contract, were countered by the contention that Coleman's motion would serve the dual purpose of accepting the low bid and still leave the contract open for action by the council at a later date.

Both Robertson and Alderman Steve Barsch, also a member of the sanitation committee, contended that the Coleman motion left final acceptance of the Milan offer open to question and that there was a possibility the company might not make collections after Monday until a new contract is approved.

The old Milan contract with the city expired Monday. Alderman Sam Whitmer challenged Robertson's motion for acceptance of the Milan
